

Gains for trainees obtained during an international virtual traineeship:

- connection between education and work,
- new learning opportunities,
- opportunities to develop communication skills,
- becoming familiar with an international working environment,
- increasing awareness of a different culture,
- international experience on a business level,
- beneficial personal experience,
- a role in the company growth plan,
- students' education is made relevant to the business and social context.
- new job-oriented skills.

Gains for companies:

- opportunities to develop networks among international business companies,
- talented trainees, who can become employees in future, identified,
- knowledge and expertise shared with international project partners,
- expansion of the sales market and attraction of new customers in the target countries,
-
-
-
-

Gains for VET providers:

-
-
-